Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew.

An intellectual interpretation of high class comedy is such a rare treat that when the opportunity presents itself few fail to embrace it. Such a performance will be the attraction at the Washington Opera-house Wednesday evening next, when Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will present that superb comedy, "That Girl from Mexico." It is a comedy of very great merit, possessing novelty and originality, and is happily devoid of those extraneous and unnecessary specialties usually interjected into the comedies of today.

The Verdict Unanimous.

It pleases the lawyer and his client too, to have the verdict of the jury unanimous. A great jury composed of the American public has rendered an unanimous verdict on Dr. Hale's House-hold Cough Cure as a medicine, agreeing that its promise of a speedy cure for coughs, colds and bronchial troubles are always carried out to the letter. This pleasant verdict has not been obtained without great pains taken to make it the best cough cure on the market. Try a bottle when you have a cough or cold and you will belong to the "unanimous" ever after. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

Resolution of Thanks.

At a meeting of the teachers of the public schools the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of the teachers and citizens of Maysville be tendered to the Hon. Thomas R. Plister for the eloquent address at the Opera-house on Columbus Day, also to the G. A. R. and the S. of V. for their courtesy in the loan of flags &c., and to the police force for the good order maintained in the streets.

A special vote of thanks to the managers is also hereby tendered for the use of the Opera-house on the occasion free of charge.

UNDER MELTING BUTTER.

Where the Abyssinian "Swell" Gets His Pomade.

An Abyssinian will tell you without a blush that he is necessarily washed at birth, cleans himself on his marriage morn and hopes to be washed after death; that once every year he dips himself in the river on the festival of St. John the Baptist, and regularly every morning he wets the end of his toga with the moisture from his mouth and freshens up his eyes.

Whenever he feels his hide hard and uncomfortable he anoints himself with mutton fat, says the Century.

Of a morning one may see the feuness-doree of the town strolling with body erect, and with about a pound of butter stuck on their heads, gradually melting under the increasing power of the sun.

The women look a shade cleaner occasionally, caused not by any act of their own, but through the accident of being for hours in a rainstorm, which at this season occurs daily, but even then the odor of rancid mutton fat impregnates the atmosphere wherever they may be.
